

Active After-school Communities

Helping kids and communities get active

DO YOU HAVE EXPERIENCE MANAGING OR SUPPORTING JUNIOR RUGBY LEAGUE TEAMS?

DO YOU HAVE AFTERNOONS FREE?

WOULD YOU LIKE TO EARN SOME MONEY COACHING CHILDREN IN NON-CONTACT RUGBY LEAGUE ACTIVITIES?

The Australian Sports Commission runs after school sports sessions in primary schools and Out of School Hours Centres. ARL Development supports the Active After-schools Communities Program and is currently recruiting more LeagueFun deliverers.

If you have been involved in Rugby League (or code with similar skills), come and join our LeagueFun team. Successfully complete the free Community Coach Training Program and the 2 hour LeagueFun extension course, then register yourself as a LeagueFun deliverer and you will receive:

- Information from local ARL Development Officer who will become your LeagueFun contact
- 8 week LeagueFun Program – 8 activity cards designed specifically for the Active After-school Communities Program
- LeagueFun Certificate
- LeagueFun polo shirt
- Payment for your services

For more information:

- Visit the ARL Development web site www.arldevelopment.com.au and contact your nearest local ARL National Development Officer.

LeagueFun

LeagueFun does not qualify you as an accredited rugby league coach within the National Coaching Accreditation Scheme. To become an accredited coach, you must complete the rugby league requirements as stipulated by the Australian Rugby League.